

GORFFENNAF - AWST 2017 THE DRAGON DIARY JULY - AUGUST 2017

Paddle Sports Weekend / IT WAS 50 YEARS AGO TODAY! 15 & 16 JULY

As part of the British Film Institute's BRITAIN ON FILM project we have a pop-up screening venue in the atmospheric Sailors' Institute on the quay, where we'll show local archive films throughout the weekend.

Both evenings, Saturday 15th AND Sunday 16th at the Dragon Theatre starting 7.30pm, we're showing the Alan G Parker film celebrating 50 years of Sgt Pepper's Lonely Hearts Club Band - IT WAS 50 YEARS AGO TODAY! With a short B-Movie of Archive Camping Film from 1967. £4/£2 (Cert 12A)

KING ARTHUR Legend of the Sword (12A, 126 mins) 7.30 TUESDAY 25 JULY

SHOT IN SNOWDONIA, starring Charlie Hunnam (and David Beckham!) this is Guy Ritchie's version of the ancient tale. Arthur is robbed of his birth right to the throne but when fate leads him to pull the sword from the stone he embraces his destiny to become a legendary fighter & leader.
£7 Adult, £4 Under 18s, £9.50 1+1, Film starts at 7.30pm, Bar open 6.45

ARCHIVE COFFEE MORNINGS EVERY THURSDAY 27 JULY to 31 AUGUST

Every Thursday morning throughout the summer holidays, call in anytime from 10.30am for a filter coffee or 'panad' of tea and join us in exploring the archives of locally shot film footage. These events are running as part of our Britain on Film project - opening up the film & TV archives of the UK for the public to enjoy.

Adults £3 - price includes REFRESHMENTS - Children free of charge.

THE THREE MUSKETEERS : Three Half Pints 2.30 MONDAY 31 JULY

Join stars of CBeebies' Spot Bots and Justin's House - The Three Half Pints - in a new tale of chivalry, sword swishing and suddenly falling over! Will they defeat the dastardly evil-doers? Will they save the damsel in distress? Nobody knows - but what we can promise is superb fun for families with children aged 6-11, from this excellent touring production.

Adult £8, Under 18's £5, 1+1 £12 Supported by the Arts Council of Wales

TREASURE ISLAND 7.30 EVERY WEDNESDAY 02 - 30 AUGUST

Springfield Street Productions, from the not-far-away wilds of Dolgellau, present a lively SUMMER SHOW on the main stage, each and every Wednesday during August. There'll be swash-buckling, there'll be pirate ooh-aarghing and without a doubt there'll be lots of laughter for young and old!

£8, Child £6, 1+1 £12.50 on the door. Reserve in advance (50p per adult) 01341 281 697

TIME OF THEIR LIVES (12A, 104mins) 7.30 FRIDAY 04 AUGUST

Determined to gate-crash her ex-lover's funeral in France, former actress Helen (Joan Collins) escapes her retirement home with the help of Priscilla (Pauline Collins), a housewife stuck in a bad marriage. Pooling their limited resources, they hit the road together. On this unforgettable journey, they find true friendship in one another - and have the time of their lives.

£7 Adult, £4 Under 18s, £9.50 1+1, Film starts at 7.30pm

Theatr y Ddraig, BARMOUTH, dragontheatre.co.uk